Family Science Review is a peer-reviewed online journal published four times a year by the Family Science Association (www.familyscienceassociation.org). We publish scholarly articles that focus on family research, theory, policy, and education. Articles with implications for strengthening all family types, including diverse families, are strongly encouraged.

Submission Guidelines

- Submit all manuscripts to FamilyScienceReview@berry.edu.
- Submit only previously unpublished work. Do not submit work simultaneously to another publication. All manuscripts should protect confidentiality of human participants.
- The title page should contain title, author(s), and institutional affiliation. Remove all author-identifying information from subsequent pages
- Prior to publication in FSR, all authors must sign a copyright agreement.
- Have questions? Contact Brian Jory, Editor, Family Science Review, Berry College, Box 5019, Mount Berry, GA, 30149-5019. E-mail: bjory@berry.edu

Manuscript Preparation

- Family Science Review follows the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (5th ed.) general guidelines for manuscript preparation. Additional information is available at www.apastyle.org.
- Double-space all parts of the MS, including text, headings, abstract, references, and tables.
- Use Microsoft Word and 12-point font.
- Keep tables and figures to a minimum. Submit a separate page for each table; provide title of each table; cite table within text; and indicate placement.
- Use footnotes sparingly.
- Abstract, text, references, tables, figures, and appendices should not exceed thirty manuscript pages, or 6,000 words.
- The abstract should have a maximum of 150 words.
- At the point of publication on the web, authors may make only minor corrections.
- Books for review should be sent to Brian Jory, Box 5019 Berry College, Mount Berry, GA 30149-5019.
