

Family Science Review, Volume 19, Issue 2, 2014

Cover

Journal Information

Inside Front Cover

Table of Contents

Introduction to Special Issue

ARTICLES

- Lessons Learned: My Non-Traditional Journey in Family Science 1
Patricia Kain Knaub
- Finding my Voice: An Accidental Journey into Teaching 13
Pamela A. Monroe
- Sliding into a Career and Finding a Home in Family Science 21
Kay Pasley
- Pathways and Turning Points in My Career as a Family Scientist 31
Jason D. Hans
- Reflections on Family Science Education: The Importance Of Technology, Experience, and Diversity in the Classroom 40
Joel A. Muraco, Casey J. Totenhagen, Shannon A. Corkery, and Melissa A. Curran
- Ethnic Identity Development Theory and its Use in Navigating Issues of Race and Power in Teaching Family Science 50
J. Roberto Reyes
- What's Love Got to Do with It? 64
G. Kevin Randall